Pay close attention: Mayayo is no good for writing letters of condolence. Nor is it good for carving inscriptions on commemorative marble plaques. Nor for letters demanding payment of the ransom for someone who's been kidnapped, if these are expected to be trusted by anyone. Nor for the income tax return. Nor for signing armistices. Nor for manifests. Nor for angry letters to the editor. Nor for impassioned complaints. Nor for farewells. Nor for comprehensive insurance policies. Nor for buying shares. Nor for declarations of war. Nor for decisions taken by the community of neighbours. Nor for Conservative Party campaigns. Nor for lettersbombs. Nor for warnings about side-effects. Nor for encyclicals from the Pope. Nor for Sunday evenings.

Mayayo is good, though, for everything else.
